

The Christmas Robin

The robin sings on Christmas day,
Through snowflakes soft and skies of grey.
With feathers bright and heart so true,
He brings a song of joy to you.

He perches near the frosty pane,
And cheers the world with his refrain.
A tiny bird, so brave and dear,
Who fills our hearts with Christmas cheer.

