

Food and Drink Questions 2 by JustPrintables.co.uk

ROUND 1

ANSWERS

-
- 1 Which Scottish carbonated soft drink is often described as 'Scotland's other national drink'?
-
- 2 Paprika is especially associated with the cuisine of which European country?
-
- 3 Name the Spanish soup, part of Andalusian cuisine, made of raw vegetables and served cold?
-
- 4 How is Phyllis Nan Sortain Pechey better known?
-
- 5 Which cheese, developed by Allan and Jenny Gray, is matured by wrapping in nettle leaves?
-
- 6 The saliva of which bird is used in the making of bird's nest soup?
-
- 7 Which meat substitute product derives its name from a village in Leicestershire?
-
- 8 Wiener Schnitzel, the national dish of Austria, is made from which meat?
-
- 9 Paella originated in which Spanish city or region?
-
- 10 A macaroon is typically made from which nut?
-
- 11 In which year did World War Two rationing formally end in the UK?
-
- 12 Often referred to as 'honey wine', what do you get when you mix water and honey and ferment it with yeast?
-

13 What dessert was invented in 1971 at The Hungry Monk Restaurant in Jevington, East Sussex?

14 What is the name given to the Scandinavian dish of raw pickled salmon with mustard and dill sauce?

15 What did Newcastle chemist William Owen invent in 1927 for those who were sick with common illnesses?

16 What is called 'Ail' in France and 'Ajo' in Spain?

17 'Angels on horseback' are oysters wrapped with what?

18 What name is given to sweetened egg whites beaten until they are stiff, light and airy?

19 What name is given to a prosecco wine which is fully sparkling?

20 Other than cantaloupe and watermelon, which type of melon is most found in UK shops?

21 Which fish is traditionally used in kedgeree?

22 Which English football team has a fanzine called The Oatcake?

23 What fruit is a cross between a grapefruit, tangerine and orange?

24 Maraschino cherries are commonly given what nickname?

25 During the 1980s, which drink was promoted with the advertising slogan, 'the totally tropical taste'?
